Beware Dainese Counterfeit Products

Motorbike Extras / Dublin

for sale (Age 39 days)

Buyers beware:

This jacket was made in China and is a bad rip off of a Dainese jacket. The safety armour used is also a bad copy and is not CE approved. Buy Dainese only from an official dealer. If buying on the internet make sure they are an Official dealer. Most bargains can turn out to be counterfeit. Bikeworld is the Main Dainese Dealer for Ireland.

If you have bought one of these jackets please return it to the store for a full refund regardless of when you bought it. If the store refuses you a refund, drop into Bikeworld for a copy of a letter from Dainese stating it's counterfeit. Take this letter with the jacket to your local Garda station and make a complaint of counterfeit goods being sold under false pretenses and they will take the matter very serious given that this is sold as a safety item. You should find a refund will follow shortly from the store owner.

If you have purchased a Dainese item which you think may be a counterfeit please contact Bikeworld.
